

Dear Chairman Powell,

Where is your integrity and common decency?

What would your grandmother say about what you are doing?

How long can you go on this way?

Do you think the corporate power you are sucking up to has any loyalty to you?

Do you think they will stand up for you when the details of your dealings are made public?

How can you look yourself in the mirror after you have sold your fellow Americans down the river?